

Positive stories hidden by focus on issues of conflict

Positive stories hidden by focus on issues of conflict

Analysis of the top topics on SA, in global media, reveals that the xenophobic violence that broke out in April and the recent failure of the country to arrest Sudanese President, Omar al-Bashir, have been the key drivers of coverage on SA in the first half of the year.