

South Africa devotes prominent coverage to education

Global TV news | Share of coverage on education topics: January 01, 2015 – April 20, 2015

South Africa emerged as the country that devoted the highest share of its domestic coverage to education topics, as the country released favourable matric results in the beginning of the year. Italy and the U.S. did not breach the awareness threshold on education topics.